Formulated specifically for sensitive stomachs and refined palates, these wines offer a gentler, smoother tasting experience while maintaining full-bodied richness, balance, and beauty.

“We're creating wine that loves you back,” says Italia

Tornabene, founder of Tornabene Wine. “This category was born from real conversations with consumers—people who love wine but not how it sometimes makes them feel. So we changed that.”

Beyond innovation in the glass, Tornabene Wine stands out for its commitment to social impact. As with all Italia Tornabene projects, 10% of proceeds go directly to EmpowerHer Journey, the founder's nonprofit dedicated to helping single mothers build businesses through mentorship, education, and funding.
