

Touched by Type 1 Wins 2025 Four Telly Awards for Short Film 'Hannah's Story'

Award-Winning Short Film, Created in Partnership with Hodges Film, Honored for Excellence in Storytelling, Social Impact, and Type 1 Diabetes Awareness.

ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES, June 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Touched by Type 1, a Central Florida nonprofit committed to empowering individuals impacted by Type 1 Diabetes, is proud to announce that its original short film, Hannah's Story, has been honored with four 2025 Telly Awards.

Hannah's Story is more than a film—it's a reflection of the lived experiences of so many individuals and families facing type 1 diabetes.”

Elizabeth Forrest

Produced in collaboration with the award-winning team at Hodges Film, Hannah's Story brings to life the strength, resilience, and spirit of the Type 1 Diabetes community through the lens of a young girl navigating her diagnosis.

The film pairs powerful storytelling with cinematic visuals to inspire awareness, connection, and hope. Hannah's Story has resonated deeply with viewers, serving as a beacon of encouragement and raising the bar for T1D storytelling in media.

The film received accolades in the following categories:

- Gold: Not-for-profit
- People's Telly Gold: Film & Shorts
- Silver: Social Impact
- Bronze: Documentary

“This recognition is incredibly meaningful to our organization,” said Elizabeth Forrest, Founder and President of Touched by Type 1. “Hannah's Story is more than a film—it's a reflection of the lived experiences of so many individuals and families facing type 1 diabetes. We're deeply grateful to Hodges Film for capturing this story with such care and creativity."

The Telly Awards, now in their 45th year, celebrate excellence in video and television across all screens. With over 13,000 entries submitted from across the globe, this year's competition recognized outstanding work from creators, agencies, and nonprofits pushing boundaries in media.

Hannah's Story premiered at the 2024 Dancing for Diabetes show in Orlando and has since garnered national attention. The film was voted a winner of the 2025 People's Telly Award, recognizing its powerful impact across digital and social platforms.
