Nakaryu One: The Next-Gen Agency – as a Subscription

Nakaryu One introduces an entirely new category: a service-based agency platform that works on-demand instead of project-based – like having an in-house team on subscription.

The flat-rate includes:

- Branding & Corporate Design

- Social Media & Performance Marketing
- Content Creation (photo, video, AI, blog, newsletters) & graphic design
- SEO & AI Automation
- Strategic Marketing Consulting & AI-Powered Solutions

One contract – an entire team. Nakaryu One replaces the need for multiple agencies, scattered freelancers, or internal departments with a smart, on-demand creative & tech cloud.

Web Design Flat Rate: The New Foundation of Digital Visibility

For companies that don't (yet) need full-service, Nakaryu offers a standalone Web Design Subscription: Delivering engaging digital experiences – websites, online stores, and complex platforms – all at a fixed monthly rate.

- From just €95/month – includes hosting, maintenance, support, adjustments, and continuous optimization.
- No high upfront costs – just high-quality, scalable digital presence.

Modular add-ons include online shops, booking systems, blogs, SEO, GDPR compliance, and more.

Built for the Future: Modular, Scalable, Transparent

Nakaryu is radically scalable. Companies choose what they need – and when. Whether you're a startup with a limited budget or a global brand launching campaigns across multiple channels, Nakaryu offers a flexible ecosystem where creative services function like
