partner deserves the same rigor, strategy, and discretion as an executive search. Since then, the firm has grown into the industry gold standard, with a team of expert matchmakers and an industry leading 89% success rate.

"For 25 years, we've served as a trusted partner to discerning men and women who are ready to take a smarter, more intentional approach to their love lives by listening, understanding, and connecting them to their future partner," said Barbie Adler, Founder and President of Selective Search. "This milestone reflects not just our longevity, but the real impact we've made in people's lives."

Over the past 25 years, Selective Search has perfected its proprietary six-step Meet Your Future® process. Grounded in psychology, executive recruiting, and human behavior, this proven process has helped the team successfully match over 4,000 happy couples, with 34% of members finding love with their first match.

"Selective Search clients value their time, reputation, and personal privacy," said Adler. "Our services ensure a discreet, behind-the-scenes process that respects their status and lifestyle."

Recognized in Forbes, The New York Times, Entrepreneur, and other national outlets, Selective Search sets the standard in the premium matchmaking industry.

"While technology has changed the dating landscape, our mission remains true to a personal approach to help exceptional individuals find someone truly aligned with their values, lifestyle, and goals," said Adler.
