ALPHARETTA, GA, UNITED STATES, June 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

“

We believe that an educated hiring team is best positioned to make the right hiring decisions for their organization when they are well-informed about background checks”

W. Barry Nixon

PreemploymentDirectory.com Updates their Employment Screening Advice Center to Offer Expert Advice to Educate Employers About the Background Checking Process

The Advice Center offers employers expert counsel to educate them about background checks to increase their knowledge and improve their screening processes.

The Employment Screening Advice Center offers important content from experts in employment background checking for Employers, Job Seekers and Background Checking

Firms to help them continuously improve.

This announcement focuses on providing Employers with advice since they are the primary purchasers of background checks. According to the Professional Background Screening Association (PBSA) more than 94% of employers conduct some form of background check during their hiring process.

Our goal is to keep employers current on the latest developments and enhancements in background checking so they can maximize the effectiveness of their employee selection to assist them in choosing the best candidates.
