

BioVeritas to Speak about Opportunities for Farmers through SAF at TopSoil Summit 2025

Innovative SAF company to detail the benefits of biofuels and SAF to the American farmer and the ag economy

BRYAN, TX, UNITED STATES, June 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BioVeritas, LLC., a leading sustainable fuels and biochemicals company redefining the future of sustainable aviation fuel (SAF), today announced that Kyle Ross, vice president of process development, will present at TopSoil Summit 2025 on June 3, 2025 in Riverside, Iowa. Mr. Ross will speak in the Elevating BioFuels with SAF Panel at 1:30PM at the Riverside Casino.

Mr. Ross will join fellow expert Meg Whitty of LanzaJet for a panel discussion on the synergistic benefits of biofuels and SAF to the American farmer, providing a win-win opportunity for fuel producers, farmers and the United States' energy security. SAF offers a new market for corn with a strong willingness to pay for climate-smart practices.

Kyle Ross, vice president of process development for BioVeritas

"Sustainable aviation fuel isn't just a decarbonization tool, it's a powerful rural economic engine," said Kyle Ross. "By creating new markets for climate-smart corn and leveraging existing ag infrastructure, SAF offers American farmers a forward-looking pathway to increased profitability that also provides a more sustainable and secure energy landscape for the United States."

BioVeritas, LLC is a portfolio company of Ara Partners, a private equity firm specializing in
