

EdVenture Niseko Opens New Overnight Summer Camps in Hokkaido for Children and Teens

Weeklong, screen-free camps in Niseko offer hands-on outdoor activities and international friendships in Hokkaido's natural setting.

NISEKO, HOKKAIDO, JAPAN, June 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- EdVenture Niseko's leading summer and winter camp provider, is excited to announce the launch of its new residential summer camp, with weekly programs running from June 22 through August 30, 2025. Building on 13 years of experience providing day camp programs, EdVenture, a division of Midori no Ki K.K. (MnK Niseko), delivers an English-immersive overnight program designed for children aged 10–17. The program will operate from the brand-new, purpose-built EdVenture Activity Center and Lodges, featuring dedicated student accommodation, a spacious dining hall, indoor activity areas, and a central hub for nature-based learning.

This new program and the new facilities are a natural progression for EdVenture and MnK, and we're proud to offer experiences that give children confidence, independence, and lifelong memories.”

The camp program offers a full week of English immersion and outdoor adventure in the stunning natural surroundings of Niseko, Hokkaido. Activities include hiking, rafting, biking, yoga, cooking, orienteering, creative tinkering projects, and leadership challenges — fostering resilience, teamwork, and personal growth.

"We're thrilled to launch our overnight programs and give families a safe, supportive, and exciting option for summer in Hokkaido," said Jack Woods, Resort Manager at EdVenture Niseko.

The overnight programs are thoughtfully organized by age and experience level, with activities led in English by an international team of experienced instructors. The camps are designed to be inclusive for all language abilities, with staff also speaking Japanese, Chinese, and various dialects to support clear, visual, and hands-on communication throughout the week.
