comprehensive series of episodes that brought a wide array of guests to conservative audiences nationwide. Fitzgerald is also a noted film director and producer with Veterans for America First (VFAF) whose credits include VFAF Veterans for Trump: The Movement, Border Invasion: An American Crisis, and The Fall of Deceit. The guest run on the show provided a critical platform for voices from politics, the military, activism, and journalism.

Over the course of four months, Stan Fitzgerald used his VFAF network and hosted 150+ distinct guest appearances, offering nightly conversations that covered political insight, grassroots movements, legislative updates, and patriotic activism. State Legislatures from across the country, high profile grassroots leaders, military veterans and members of the media were booked on the show by Fitzgerald.

Fitzgerald will be taking a short break from the full-time production schedule to return later this summer of 2025.
