While BKFC has yet to officially confirm the opponent, all signs point to a highly anticipated title showdown with reigning featherweight champion Kai Stewart, setting up a potential clash between two of the division's most exciting talents.

ABOUT "THE DREAMKILLER"

Born in Nicaragua and emigrating to the United States as a teenager, Plazaola initially came in pursuit of the American Dream—though fighting wasn't originally on his radar. Today, he's not only living that dream but redefining it, emerging as one of the most exciting and promising fighters on the BKFC roster.

Standing at just 5'6" in the 145-pound featherweight division, Plazaola regularly defies expectations. "The Dreamkiller" has stopped every opponent he's faced, including a memorable three-punch knockout at KnuckleMania 2 and most recently, a third-round TKO victory over Louie Lopez at the sold-out Hard Rock Hotel & Casino in Hollywood, Florida.

"I want to be remembered in this sport," Plazaola says. "Becoming a world champion and entering the BKFC Hall of Fame is my ultimate goal."

TRAINING SMARTER, FIGHTING HARDER

Outside the Squared Circle, Plazaola embodies the martial arts lifestyle. Training twice a day and serving as the head coach at Miami's esteemed Freestyle Fighting Academy (1423 SW 107th Ave, Miami, FL 33174 ), he mentors future fighters, sharing his knowledge, discipline, and passion for combat sports.

To refine his impressive footwork and precision striking, Plazaola incorporates innovative tools such as the Jukestir: Coordination Punching Bag, highlighting his dedication to advanced, science-based training methods.
