

Madhu Shekhar Bhandari Launches New Initiatives in Blockchain, Wellness, and Urban Development in the UAE

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, June 2, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Renowned entrepreneur Madhu

Shekhar Bhandari, founder of the long-standing Consta Group, has announced a series of new ventures that expand his impact across real estate, emerging technologies, and holistic wellness in the United Arab Emirates. With over 140 buildings developed over the past four decades, Tokenization makes any construction global, accessible, and transparently shared.”

Maria Paula Castaño

Bhandari is now focusing on three strategic pillars: blockchain innovation, integrative health, and sustainable urban growth.

Decentralized Technology: The Launch of M5Dex

One of Bhandari's latest projects is M5Dex, a decentralized platform for trading and tokenizing digital and real-world assets. Combining artificial intelligence with blockchain infrastructure, M5Dex aims to enhance financial access and transparency in real estate and digital asset markets through secure, inclusive tools.

Holistic Health with SWAFE

Simultaneously, Bhandari is introducing SWAFE, a wellness concept based on the five natural elements space, water, air, fire, and earth. The initiative promotes mental and physical balance through natural therapies and products, responding to growing global demand for integrative health solutions.

Social Impact and Regional Expansion

Through his ventures, Bhandari also supports digital inclusion, vocational training, and community development initiatives, with a particular focus on underserved populations. His business philosophy emphasizes shared value creation and long-term sustainability.

“True wealth is not in what we accumulate, but in what we share,” Bhandari said during the launch of his new initiatives.

A Legacy That Connects Infrastructure, Innovation, and Human Purpose

From traditional construction to Web3 technologies and natural health models, Madhu Shekhar

Bhandari continues to redefine business leadership in the Gulf with a growing global footprint.

“True wealth is not in what we accumulate, but in what we share.”
