

Astons Introduces Exclusive Bonus for Property Buyers

Pursuing Investor Residency Permit in Turkey Through Its Golden Visa Program

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, June 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Astons, a global leader in investment immigration and relocation services, officially announces a new and exclusive bonus when buying property with Astons, aimed at individuals pursuing an investor residency permit in Turkey. This development further strengthens Astons' globally recognized golden visa offering, making the Turkish residency pathway more attractive to international investors seeking mobility, security, and lifestyle benefits.

Positioned as one of the most comprehensive services in the industry, this new initiative marks a significant enhancement to Astons' real estate-linked residency program in Turkey, providing unmatched value for high-net-worth individuals (HNWIs) aiming to invest in a rapidly growing economy while securing a second residence.

Turkey's Golden Opportunity: Property Investment Meets Strategic Immigration

Amid rising global demand for residency-by-investment programs, Turkey remains a key destination for investors. Its strategic geographic location bridging Europe and Asia, dynamic economy, and favorable lifestyle offerings make it an ideal option for those seeking alternative citizenship or residency solutions.

Astons has responded to this demand by amplifying the appeal of the investor residency permit in Turkey through a new incentive – a bonus when buying property with Astons. This move addresses the increasing interest in Turkish real estate as an avenue to secure golden visa benefits.

As geopolitical and financial uncertainties push global investors to diversify their holdings and secure residency alternatives, this bonus offers added financial and lifestyle incentives. In an already robust program where property investments starting from $400,000 qualify an individual for Turkish residency, the added value provided by Astons elevates the opportunity. Obtaining a Turkey residence permit offers investors and their families a strategic gateway to living, working, and thriving in a country that bridges Europe and Asia.

Tailored Residency Solutions with Tangible Benefits

Astons' tailored approach ensures each client benefits not only from expert legal and investment guidance but also from unique perks such as:

- Bonus rewards for real estate buyers through the Astons platform
- Accelerated application processing for Turkey's golden visa pathway
- Access to vetted, high-return properties in prime Turkish locations

Each transaction is managed by a dedicated team of immigration, tax, and real estate professionals, allowing clients to navigate the complex regulatory environment with ease.

"This initiative reinforces Astons' commitment to delivering exceptional value to our clients, especially those interested in the rapidly growing Turkish residency-by-investment market," stated Arthur Sarkisian, Managing Director at Astons. "By offering a unique bonus with real estate investments, we make the Turkish golden visa program more accessible and rewarding than ever before."

Elevating the Standard for Investor Residency in Turkey

The new offering from Astons stands out in a competitive market by combining three essential elements: legal expertise, real estate acumen, and client-centric incentives. The investor residency permit in Turkey, while already streamlined through property investments, becomes significantly more attractive when paired with Astons' added-value model.

The company's in-depth knowledge of Turkish property markets—from Istanbul's modern skyline to the coastal retreats of Antalya—allows it to present clients with options tailored to both personal preferences and investment goals. With the golden visa now bundled with an exclusive bonus, the program becomes a compelling choice for discerning global citizens.

Demand for Turkey's Golden Visa on the Rise

Recent statistics show a notable surge in global applications for Turkey's residency-by-investment program. In 2024 alone, applications increased by over 30%, with investors drawn to Turkey's combination of cultural richness, economic opportunity, and international mobility.

This trend is especially evident among citizens from the Middle East, South Asia, Russia, and parts of Africa, where political and financial volatility has accelerated interest in secure second residency options. Astons' program specifically caters to these regions, offering multi-lingual consultants and full-service assistance from property selection to permit approval.

With the bonus when buying property with Astons, the offering gains an edge in this high-demand market, promising greater return on investment—both in financial terms and in long-term security.

A Reputation Built on Excellence and Global Reach

Astons has been a dominant force in the investment immigration industry for more than three decades. Headquartered in London with global offices spanning Dubai, Limassol, Istanbul, and beyond, the firm is trusted by thousands of HNWIs and their families worldwide.

Known for its high client retention and success rates, Astons offers services not just for Turkey, but also for residency and citizenship programs in countries such as Greece, Portugal, Malta, St. Kitts & Nevis, Dominica, and more. Its reputation is built on transparency, diligence, and a commitment to exceeding client expectations.
