Rising Demand Challenges Traditional CPA Bookkeeping Services

Businesses that offer CPA bookkeeping services deal with growing labor expenses, a lack of employees, and more compliance requirements. Key industry findings reveal:

68% of CPA firms nationwide struggle to retain skilled bookkeeping professionals

Over $60,000 annually is spent per firm on maintaining in-house bookkeeping staff

42% of mid-sized firms report delays in reporting due to capacity limitations

These numbers highlight the need for creative, effective solutions that can manage bookkeeping duties without sacrificing accuracy. The market for outsourced bookkeeping for startups is expanding significantly due to the acceleration of demand, particularly among rising enterprises. This presents opportunities for reliable providers to provide cost-effective and focused help.
