

Montgomery County Man Files Suit Over Severe Injuries Caused by Police K-9

Lawsuit Highlights Safety Failures and Delayed Resolution

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, June 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A Montgomery County resident has filed a lawsuit against the City of Splendora, the City of Magnolia, and Integrity K9 Texas, a private canine training company, following a serious incident involving a police K-9 that occurred during a training exercise in a public park.

Filed under Cause No. 2024-39113 in Montgomery County District Court, the lawsuit alleges that the defendants conducted a high-risk police dog training drill in an open, publicly accessible park without signage, barriers, or proper safety protocols. According to the filing, the plaintiff was lawfully present and playing basketball when the unleashed K-9 broke loose and inflicted serious physical and psychological injuries.

The lawsuit contends that the facts strongly support a finding of negligence and asserts that evidence will confirm multiple failures in planning and executing the training exercise.

"Training of this nature should never take place in an open public space without safeguards to protect bystanders," said attorney Colby Lewis, who represents the plaintiff. "Our client has endured significant trauma, and while efforts were made to resolve the matter outside of court, no adequate offer has been extended to cover his documented medical needs. We believe this case will help clarify standards around public safety and accountability."

The legal action seeks damages for medical expenses, lost wages, pain and suffering, and long-term psychological harm. It also raises broader public safety concerns about the conduct of
