

Bierman Autism Centers Expands Access With New Columbus Clinic Opening Fall 2025

Bierman opens fourth Ohio clinic in Columbus fall 2025, expanding ABA, speech & OT services, easing waitlists, and creating 50+ specialized jobs.

COLUMBUS, OH, UNITED STATES, June 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Central Ohio families will soon have shorter drives for autism therapy. Bierman Autism Centers is adding a fourth Buckeye-State location—a 10,600-square-foot clinic on Columbus's northwest side—scheduled to open in fall 2025.

Purpose-Built for Kids, Powered by a Teaching-Hospital Mindset

Inside every Bierman center, therapy rooms transform into discovery zones where clinicians “Let Kids Be Kids,” blending play with evidence-based Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA), Speech, and Occupational Therapy.

Behind the scenes, each site operates like a teaching hospital, with incoming clinicians entering structured mentorship programs covering precision teaching, assent-based care, and compassionate case management.

“Every child deserves timely, individualized care that celebrates their limitless potential,” said Chrissy Barosky, Chief Clinical Officer. “Expanding in Columbus helps us reach more families while we cultivate the next generation of autism-care leaders.”
