improve energy efficiency.

“Our team takes pride in delivering high-quality commercial HVAC solutions that help facilities stay compliant, cool, and energy-efficient,” said Angel Rodriguez, VP of Operations. “Hotels and hospitals operate 24/7, and our mission is to retrofit aging infrastructure without disrupting daily operations.”

Vetcon also specializes in commercial exhaust fans used in commercial kitchens and labs, offering custom fabrication and installation when needed.

Servicing Central Florida’s Premier Hotels and Resorts

From luxury resorts on International Drive to high-rise hotels in Downtown Orlando, Vetcon is trusted by property managers and facility engineers for responsive, expert service. Their team works seamlessly around tight schedules to accommodate the operational needs of 5-star hotels, including The Ritz-Carlton Orlando, JW Marriott, Loews Sapphire Falls, and more.

“We understand the importance of quiet, non-invasive service in these environments,” said Angel Rodriguez. “When a chiller or refrigeration system goes down at a resort, response time is everything. That’s why we train our technicians to be prepared, professional, and precise.”

HVAC Services for Hospitals in Orlando and Kissimmee

Hospitals require dependable climate control to maintain sterile environments and patient comfort. Vetcon offers reliable service for healthcare facilities, such as Orlando Health, AdventHealth, and Nemours Children’s Hospital. They retrofit outdated systems, service critical chillers, and resolve emergency water leaks that could jeopardize hospital operations.

Rodriguez emphasized, “Hospitals must meet the highest standards, and we bring the discipline and technical expertise to ensure every HVAC and plumbing retrofit we perform meets and exceeds code.”

Kitchen and Walk-In Refrigeration Retrofitting

In addition to HVAC, Vetcon also specializes in servicing and retrofitting commercial kitchen equipment, including walk-in coolers, freezers, and refrigerated prep tables used in high-volume kitchens throughout Orlando. From back-of-house restaurant spaces in theme park resorts to independent hospitality groups in Kissimmee, Vetcon’s technicians are trained to handle all makes and models.

Emergency Water Leak Repair and Plumbing Solutions

A single water leak can disrupt entire hotel operations. Vetcon’s rapid response team is equipped
