□Two Unique Features That Redefine What's Possible

□The phone case sticks to virtually any surface, allowing users to free their hands

□Nano-Suction technology□

Cardylish is a futuristic smartphone case that can stick firmly to walls, thanks to innovative Nano-Suction technology. Nano-Suction uses countless microscopic suction cups that securely adhere to flat surfaces.

Sticks to any flat surface

Unlike magnets, Cardylish can stick perfectly to non-metallic surfaces such as glass, mirrors, tiles, etc.

Perfect for videos

Cardylish enables seamless, hands-free experiences in any setting. It allows users to take smarter selfies, join video calls, follow cooking tutorials, or stream videos—opening up endless possibilities limited only by one's imagination.

□The phone case is designed to complement users' fashion with customizable styles

Comes with a mirror-backed card

Cardylish utilize the unique sticking feature to attach stylish cards with a mirror backing. These cards, called "Design Cards," are available in a wide variety of designs.

Design cards are easily removable

With Cardylish, users can easily change their phone's style to match their daily mood or outfit.

Users can check their appearance anytime using the built-in mirror on the back of the case

The mirror-backed design cards allow users to effortlessly check their appearance or touch up their makeup at any time, without the need to open a bag.

Daily customization options let users coordinate their phone with their style
