PRODUCTS INC.

We supply and manufacture professional-grade products that enable better performance in the industrial, commercial construction, electrical and safety markets.

Jeff Gwynn, Chief Marketing Officer for Pro Line Products Inc., emphasized: "Our new website not only streamlines access to our superior quality wire products but also showcases our unique value propositions. Our distributors, partners and customers can now explore our full range of premium wire options, neatly tied bundles, and custom-fitted solutions, all while supporting American manufacturing."

RapidWire's value-added offerings include:

- Premium wire quality for superior performance and durability
- Neatly tied bouquets of 100 wires for efficient handling
- Securely wrapped pallets for easy shipping and storage
- Custom-fitted protective end caps ("shoes") for enhanced safety and ease of use
- Products manufactured and sourced in the United States

Eric Singleton, General Manager for RapidWire, added: "Our wire production facility here in the USA reduces lead times significantly, ensuring our partners receive mission-critical components faster than ever. Our value-added services, from neatly packaged bundles to custom-fitted end protections, demonstrate our commitment to enhancing efficiency for our customers. We take pride in supporting local manufacturing."

The website includes technical information, an online order and custom quote form, and detailed information on RapidWire's premium wire offerings.
