

CHANGE Environmental Selected as Top Global Business of the Year by IAOTB

CHANGE Environmental will be honored at the IAOTB's Annual Awards gala in Las Vegas

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, June 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CHANGE Environmental, environmental leadership and consulting company, was selected for Top Global Business for 2025 by the International Association of Top Businesses (IAOTB) for its phenomenal results, dedication, and commitment to the industry.

Inclusion with the International Association of Top Businesses is an honor in itself; only a few members, businesses and programs in each discipline are chosen for this distinction. These special honorees are distinguished based on their professional accomplishments, academic achievements, leadership abilities, longevity in the field, other affiliations, and contributions to their communities.

CHANGE Environmental (CHANGE), founded by Dr. Tim McAuley, is a recognized global thought leader in the professional environmental consulting services industry. CHANGE is a Veteran Owned Business and a highly recognized and called upon multi-award winning and world renowned strategic environmental leadership and consulting company. They have achieved extreme success by offering our services focused on core values of transparency, professionalism, accountability, and efficiency. They have served hundreds of clients that continue to come back for their expertise and experience. Either established or new clients each have a common goal that is to work with CHANGE to establish a more comprehensive and robust approach to having their environmental, resiliency and sustainability issues resolved in a timely and effective manner while looking for long term solutions to be sustainable and compliant.

Dr. McAuley is a leading authority and multi-award-winning environmental leader and recognized expert across various environmental disciplines. He is a highly respected and recognized expert in air quality and human health exposure and risk assessment. He has directed, managed, and consulted on numerous domestic and global environmental consulting and research studies, and has been invited to give several keynote speeches and has become a global resource for environmental forward thinking.

Recently, Dr. McAuley has served on the prestigious Transportation Research Board, Committee on Transportation and Air Quality at the National Academy of Sciences in Washington, the American Chemical Society Committee on Environmental Initiatives, and the United States Environmental Protection Agency

Scientific Advisory Board. In addition, he is also a peer elected member of several subcommittees at the National Academies in areas of aviation, transportation, air quality, indoor air quality, exposure assessment, and human health. He is also currently an elected member of the Indoor Environmental Standards Organization Research Committee, Vice Chair of Air & Waste Management Technical Advisory Committee, Air & Waste Management AB-1 Particulate Matter Committee, and Treasurer of the International Society for Exposure Science.

Throughout the tenure of this program, it has received many awards and accolades. Dr. McAuley and Change Environmental will be awarded this December at the remarkable Bellagio Hotel in Las Vegas for its selection of Top Global Business.

The President of the International Association of Top Businesses (IAOTB), Stephanie Cirami, stated: "Choosing Change Environmental for this honor was an easy decision for our panel to make. Dr. McAuley and his influential business is inspirational, influential, and a true visionary and thought leader. We cannot wait to see him and celebrate his business's accomplishments at this year's gala."

Looking back, Dr. McAuley attributes his success to his perseverance, work ethic, and the mentors she has had along the way. In the future, he hopes to inspire and influence those getting into the field.
