Development. “This new space positions us for long-term growth, enhances collaboration, and allows us to better serve both current and future clients.”

The new location offers a larger, more modern workspace that includes upgraded meeting areas, improved client interaction zones, and open-concept workspaces that support creative collaboration. The facility was intentionally designed to reflect the firm's design values—functionality, innovation, and client experience.

A Strategic Move with Client Benefits

HDA Architects' new office space is a strategic move designed to enhance both internal operations and client experiences. The new space offers increased capacity to support HDA's growing team, improved facilities for meetings and client presentations, and a streamlined environment for day-to-day workflow and collaborative design efforts. Situated in downtown Rome, this relocation also strengthens HDA's visibility and commitment to the community. Through this expansion, HDA Architects underscores its dedication to creating impactful spaces that bring client visions to life and elevate the communities it serves.

Gratitude and Momentum

HDA Architects extends its deepest appreciation to its clients, partners, and dedicated team members who have made this move possible. The firm sees this transition not only as a new chapter but as a platform for continued innovation and design leadership throughout Georgia and beyond.
