Addonis Parker, internationally acclaimed muralist

God created me to never fit into a socially accepted box made for free consumption for false narratives. I move by faith and walk in prophecies before I rise. I am a Black man with vision and a heart.”

Addonis Parker

Addonis Parker speaks his truth, “God created me to never fit into a socially accepted box made for free consumption for false narratives. I move by faith and walk in prophecies before I rise. My community is fed before my canvas eats whereas fatherhood transcends compassion for my environment. I am a soul. I am a father. I am a son. I am a Black man in America with vision and a heart.”

Still We Rise Exhibition

On view at The ARC from June 13 through August 30, 2025

Still We Rise invites viewers to explore the rich tapestry of Addonis' work which confronts social injustice and celebrates Black culture. His art encompasses a diverse range of mediums, styles, and themes while reminding us that art is not only a form of expression but also a tool for change, a means of preserving memory, and a source of hope.

"In the spirit of Maya Angelou's unyielding verse, Addonis Parker's work reminds us that even in the face of adversity, beauty, culture, and community rise. At Ten North Group, we are proud to stand alongside visionaries like Addonis whose creativity helps transform neighborhoods into narratives of hope and power." commented Dr. Willie Logan, President & CEO, Ten North Group.
