“Harpoon has die-hard fans all across the Northeast and beyond,” said Charlie Storey, VP of Special Events and Brewery Festivals for Harpoon, “so in addition to our current locations in Boston’s Seaport, Windsor, VT, Boston Common’s Summer Pop Up, and at Logan Airport, we’re excited to give craft beer lovers an exciting new public house destination in Manchester, NH. The space is fantastic, and we can’t wait to welcome the community to Harpoon at Queen City Center.”

Operated by General Manager John Maggs, the location will offer a variety of contemporary American dishes and give a nod to Manchester’s roots. As the home of the first chicken tender, Harpoon has created a special “Tender Town Tower” – a super-shareable tower of chicken tenders. The perfect complement to cold craft beers, the menu features pretzels with IPA beer cheese, onion dip with house BBQ chips, wings, calamari, duck fat fries, bar pizzas, hot sandwiches and burgers, and more. The bar will serve up Harpoon craft favorites like Harpoon IPA, Day Drifter, Summer Style, and Rec. League, and exclusive, house-brewed reserve batches of specialty beers. The 20-tap bar will also offer rotating lines of guest beers.

Centrally located off I-293 in Manchester, NH, Harpoon is the largest tenant within Queen City Center, a brand new 30,000 square-foot entertainment destination bringing together some of the area’s most sought-after food and beverage, sports and fitness, art and music, and retail offerings all under one roof.
