Matthew Courtney, Downtown Artist Who Platformed Others, Dies at 66

From the mid-1980s through early '90s, he hosted the weekly anything-goes open-mic event Wide Open Cabaret at the historic home of ABC No Rio.

"Homage to Matthew.
A tremendous loss.

But he struggled for years working outdoors in SOHO, after we met at Cultural Council

Matthew Courtney

Matthew was always working outdoors in SOHO, performing Off-Broadway or his outdoor gallery in SOHO. Fortunately, his Art work is in our ArtsPR collection too."

Foundation. We last got together at a Richard Foreman show downtown a few years ago.

That night Matthew told me he also performed in shows by Foreman. He attended several of our Off-Broadway productions over the years including Shelley's THE CENCI and special events."

Fortunately, his Art work is in our ArtsPR collection too. He will be missed.
