The Boca Raton Bowl, a postseason college football bowl game owned and operated by ESPN Events, has agreements with five conferences (American Athletic Conference, Conference USA, Mid-American Conference, Mountain West Conference, Sun Belt Conference) plus select independents for berths in this year’s game. The game has logged 11 successful years with cumulative viewership surpassing 30 million households and total sponsoring value over $250 million. Over 50 Boca Raton Bowl alumni have gone on to be selected in the NFL Draft and dozens more have entered the league as undrafted free agents.

The two teams selected to compete in the 2025 Boca Raton Bowl will be announced on December 7 following the weekend’s conference championship games.

"Each year, this game brings the energy of bowl season to life in a setting unlike any other. We can't wait to welcome fans, teams, and viewers nationwide back to Boca Raton and the Palm Beaches," added Mosley.
