The stunning Xenia ensemble represents a revolutionary approach to evening wear, masterfully combining sophisticated tailoring with bold design elements. The two-piece creation features a silk satin jumpsuit with wide-leg pants and a beaded sleeveless vest overlay that creates dramatic visual impact while maintaining clean architectural lines. The design showcases Tess Mann

Atelier's signature attention to detail with over 300 hours of meticulous construction.

Key design elements include a striking V-neckline with ruched shoulders, integrated bust cups with professional drill and boning structure, and an intricate beaded lower modesty panel. The ensemble's deep décolletage and back zipper with hook-and-eye closure demonstrate the technical precision that defines Tess Mann Atelier's couture craftsmanship.

"Seeing Aliia wear the Xenia while being recognized for her influential work in coaching and empowerment perfectly captures our design philosophy," said Tess Mann, Founder and Creative Director of Tess Mann Atelier. "This piece was created for women who dare to break boundaries, and Aliia exemplifies that fearless spirit in everything she does."

The I Success Awards ceremony, celebrating 28 years of FashionTV, brought together celebrities, global influencers, and industry leaders for an evening of glamour and recognition. The event featured the story of fashion icon Philipp Plein and awards presented by movie star Vincent de Paul, creating an ideal backdrop for Tess Mann Atelier's avant-garde design to shine.

Roza's recognition as one of the Top 100 Influential Coaches acknowledges her extensive work in women's empowerment through her women's empowerment club called "Roza Club," which has organized more than 30 humanitarian events to assist underprivileged children and women. Her influence extends through her top-ranking audiobook "To Die For" and her continued advocacy for women's rights and empowerment globally.

The pairing of this prestigious recognition with Tess Mann Atelier's bold design represents a powerful statement about modern femininity – where strength meets elegance, and where women can command attention while making meaningful impact in the world.
