

MoonPay Secures BitLicense, Expanding Crypto Access in New York State

Regulatory Milestone Strengthens MoonPay's Commitment to Secure and Accessible Crypto Services

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, June 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MoonPay, a global cryptocurrency on-ramp and payments leader, has secured the prestigious BitLicense from the New York Department of Financial Services (NYDFS).

This approval allows MoonPay to offer cryptocurrency services, including buying Bitcoin and tracking its prices, throughout New York State.

The BitLicense places MoonPay among a select group of companies authorized to operate within New York's stringent regulatory framework, highlighting its dedication to compliance and consumer protection.

Ivan Soto-Wright, CEO of MoonPay, said: "As a U.S.-founded company headquartered in New York City, we're immensely proud of this milestone and look forward to continued collaboration with regulators to make crypto accessible to everyone."

New Yorkers can now easily purchase Bitcoin and other cryptocurrencies through MoonPay's user-friendly platform, benefiting from secure transactions and real-time pricing information. Users can track Bitcoin price trends simply via MoonPay's dedicated price tracking page.

Securing the BitLicense strengthens MoonPay's strategic expansion in the U.S. and reinforces its position as a trusted provider in the rapidly growing digital asset market.
