Written by Stephen Gracia and directed by Michael LoPorto, the evening features three plays:

"The Author Shares a Pint with Regret and Revelation" — A jaded pulp writer is confronted by his muse and biggest fan in a bar.

"Only in Sonnets" — A poetic exploration of the love between Michelangelo and the great love of his life through letters and verse.

"The Sexual History of Sewing Circles and Business Flights" — D3C's 185th original play, set in a 1958 airport bar where strangers uncover hidden lives in a story of anonymous sex, secret societies, and the fear of conformity.
