

Providence Films, A Valiant Eagle Inc(OTC:PSRU) Subsidiary, Starts Film Faster 48 Festival - Filmmakers Win big in Hollywood

The theme for the first competition is CalExit, offering filmmakers a timely, high-stakes narrative to explore.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, June 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Providence Film Group, a subsidiary of publicly traded media company Valiant Eagle, Inc. (OTC: PSRU), has announced the official launch of Film Faster 48, an unprecedented 48-hour filmmaking competition where winners earn more than bragging rights—they gain Hollywood access, industry credits, and real profit participation in future films.

No other festival is giving filmmakers the opportunity to co-produce a fully financed film with real equity and profit share. This isn't a contest. It's a career-defining platform.”

Dr. Xavier Mitchell

Launching July 8 in Los Angeles, the festival combines career acceleration with brand marketing and franchise scalability. To participate, teams register at FilmFaster48.com. Registrants will receive the instructions for the creative challenge. They will be given 48 hours to write, shoot, edit, and deliver a short film of 4-7 minutes in length. A panel of judges will select the winning team, which will receive a cash prize and a co-production credit on a major feature film by Brian Oliver and New Republic Pictures (Black Swan, 1917). An audience will view all submissions.

“No other festival is giving filmmakers the opportunity to co-produce a fully financed film with real equity and profit share,” said Xavier Mitchell, CEO of Providence Film Group and CalExit. “This isn't a contest. It's a career-defining platform.”

The theme for the first competition is CalExit, offering filmmakers a timely, high-stakes narrative to explore. CalExit refers to the concept of California seceding from the United States to form an independent nation. As a cultural and political thought experiment, it explores themes of sovereignty, identity, and progressive values in a divided America.

First Theme: CalExit

The competition begins with the bold and timely theme CalExit, challenging filmmakers to explore themes of political identity, independence, and cultural transformation. It's the ideal canvas for provocative storytelling.
