

Step Back in Time: 'Immersive EDO! – Summer Festival' Coming to Edo Wonderland This July

Experience the magic of an Edo-period summer festival with parades, water splashing, lanterns, and more at Edo Wonderland from July 19 to August 31, 2025.

NIKKO, TOCHIGI, JAPAN, June 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This summer, travel back in time to the vibrant streets of Edo during a special seasonal festival at Edo Wonderland Nikko Edomura in Tochigi Prefecture. From July 19 to August 31, 2025, the immersive event "Immersive EDO! – Edo no Natsu (Edo Summer Festival)" will recreate the joyful spirit of Edo-period summer festivals in a lively and fantastical setting.

Featuring traditional mikoshi (portable shrine) parades, playful water-splashing rituals, and an atmosphere lit with wind chimes and lanterns, the park transforms into a dreamlike summer scene from centuries past. Guests can also rent Edo-era costumes to fully become part of the experience—ideal for international travelers, families, and the social media generation. This hands-on festival invites visitors to discover the beauty and depth of Japanese culture through all five senses.

About Edo Wonderland Nikko Edomura

Step into the past: A vibrant mikoshi parade recreates the festive energy of an Edo summer.

Cooling off in a stream—an authentic Edo-era summer scene at Edo Wonderland.

Edo Wonderland is a historical theme park that faithfully recreates the architecture, culture, and daily life of Japan's Edo period (1603–1868). Located in Nikko, home to the sacred Nikko Toshogu Shrine, the park spans nearly 495,000 square meters and includes samurai residences, merchant districts, and artisan workshops. All staff are costumed actors speaking in authentic Edo dialect, creating an unforgettable time-travel experience that is highly praised by international guests.

Colorful wind chimes and Tanabata decorations bring the spirit of a Japanese summer to life at Edo Wonderland.
