The Growing Challenges Facing Accounting Firms

Accounting firms continue to face challenges due to rising labor costs, a shortage of qualified professionals, and growing compliance demands. Recent data indicates:

- 68% of mid-sized CPA firms report difficulty in retaining experienced bookkeeping staff
- Over $60,000 is spent annually by firms on maintaining internal bookkeeping operations
- 42% experience reporting delays due to limited staffing and internal capacity

These difficulties show how crucial it is to put in place effective, scalable bookkeeping systems that maintain accuracy while easing the operational burden. Many businesses are looking for small business bookkeeping service providers who can quickly and flexibly satisfy their unique financial demands.
