Mounting Obstacles Confronting Accounting Firms

Bookkeeping firms face significant challenges arising from escalating labor expenses, a scarcity of skilled personnel, and heightened regulatory compliance demands. Recent industry findings reveal:

1. 68% of mid-sized firms report difficulty in retaining experienced bookkeeping staff
2. The annual cost of managing internal bookkeeping exceeds $60,000 for many firms
3. 42% of firms encounter delays due to staffing shortages and limited internal capacity

These factors underscore the critical need for an efficient, scalable bookkeeping system for small businesses that alleviates operational pressures while maintaining data accuracy. As a result, many firms are turning to small business bookkeeping service providers who can deliver customized solutions with agility and reliability.
