"Irene Rivers is a character like no other, unapologetic, fearless, and a true kickass heroine. For readers who can't get enough of my Jonathan Grave series, Burned Bridges is your chance to meet someone who plays by her own rules... and breaks a few along the way," says Gilstrap.

Fans of Gilstrap's high-octane thrillers will have the opportunity to meet the author in person, ask questions about his writing process, and get a signed copy of Burned Bridges, his latest page-turner that's already generating buzz across the literary world.

Gilstrap says the Burned Bridges tour has been gaining great momentum, with fans eager to dive into his latest thriller. He's looking forward to connecting with readers at upcoming events. "It's always a joy meeting the people who bring these stories to life," Gilstrap said, excited to share the story behind his newest heroine, Irene Rivers.

"The response to Burned Bridges has been phenomenal; readers can't get enough of Irene Rivers. She's bold, unapologetic, and completely her own force of nature. I knew she'd make an impact, but seeing fans embrace her like this has been incredible. This book marks an exciting new chapter, and we're just getting started," exclaims Gilstrap.
