Cheri Perry

About Cheri Perry:

Cheri Perry is a dynamic leader, speaker, and coach with a passion for helping people and organizations navigate change with clarity, purpose, and heart. For nearly 30 years, she has empowered leaders, business owners, and teams to align their values with intentional action, creating cultures of resilience and authenticity. As a certified Ziglar Legacy Trainer, Cheri is known for her insightful guidance on leadership development, culture-building, and transformational growth.

She is the co-founder of Total Merchant Concepts, a nationally respected provider of business growth and payment solutions, recognized for its uncommon integrity and heart-led service in an often impersonal industry.

Whether she's coaching executives, training front-line teams, or inspiring audiences from the stage, Cheri encourages others to "rise through the storm" with gratitude, bold authenticity, and unwavering optimism. She is also the creator of Share a SMILE Today, a national movement dedicated to celebrating everyday excellence and fostering genuine human connection.

Cheri's work has been featured in both local and national media. She has co-authored several leadership books and leads events and workshops that support individuals through pivotal life transitions. Outside of her professional life, she finds joy in music around a campfire, kayaking in the Pacific Northwest, and planning her next adventure—always with a journal, a cozy blanket, and a great cup of coffee nearby.
