

TORSH Named 'Professional Development Solution of the Year' in 2025 EdTech Breakthrough Awards Program

Award-winning TORSH Talent platform supports teacher growth, retention, and measurable PD impact at scale across districts and development programs nationwide.

NEW ORLEANS, LA, UNITED STATES, June 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TORSH Inc., a leading education technology provider, today announced that it has been recognized with the “Professional Development Solution of the Year” award in the 7th annual EdTech Breakthrough Awards program conducted by EdTech Breakthrough, a leading market intelligence organization that recognizes the top companies and solutions in the global education technology market.

TORSH provides a complete, structured, and scalable coaching solution that education organizations use to develop, sustain, and scale their coaching and professional learning programs. The user-friendly platform makes it simple to plan, implement, track, and analyze professional learning activities. Organizations save time by leveraging observation, coaching, and learning in one robust platform, whether for one location or many.

TORSH Talent, TORSH's flagship product, integrates easily into existing routines and systems to support the full coaching cycle: structured observations, formative assessments, feedback, goal setting, goal tracking, collaboration, and data-driven insights. TORSH's high-impact coaching ecosystem is accessible at scale - whether in-person, virtual, or hybrid. The platform also integrates AI with human-centered coaching for additional flexibility and scale. TORSH Talent provides an exceptional framework for collaborating, performing observations, and delivering evidence-based feedback. It's simple to monitor and report on a user's progress using competency-based assessments, completion percentages, and more.

TORSH also provides organizations with valuable insights to measure progress and refine coaching strategies. The Insights feature compiles all interactions generated by users into reports that offer perspective into what educators are doing, their progress, and what is working for them in their classrooms. Administrators can track data at the user, school or district level. The and difficult to scale,” said Steve Johansson, managing director, EdTech Breakthrough. “TORSH is redefining what coaching and professional learning should look like. Their incredible solution does what others don’t: truly develop educators, at scale, with data-driven coaching that delivers results. We’re pleased to recognize TORSH with the ‘Professional Development Solution of the Year’ award!”

The mission of the EdTech Breakthrough Awards is to honor excellence and recognize innovation, hard work and success in a range of educational technology categories, including Student Engagement, School Administration, Adaptive Learning, STEM Education, Remote Learning, Career Preparation and many more. This year’s program attracted thousands of nominations from over 15 different countries throughout the world.

TORSH Talent's Coaching Corner dashboard gives coaches and administrators a real-time view of teacher progress, activity, and goal mastery—all in one place.

“Most professional development is failing. Unlike traditional models that rely on passive training or disconnected tools, we’re spearheading a coaching revolution by putting expert coaching at the fingertips of educators to ensure continuous growth, measurable impact, and real transformation in teaching and learning,” said Courtney Williams, CEO and Founder of TORSH. “We’re honored to receive this award from EdTech Breakthrough. We believe our solution goes beyond just tech. It’s a movement toward better teaching, better learning, and better outcomes. We’ll continue to offer educators a true coaching system that ensures long-term success.”

Educators and coaches use TORSH Talent’s video-based feedback tools to collaborate asynchronously—tagging, commenting, and aligning feedback to instructional rubrics.

This recognition from EdTech Breakthrough affirms TORSH’s unwavering commitment to transforming professional learning through innovative, evidence-based coaching solutions. As education systems nationwide grapple with educator burnout, staffing challenges, and the need for measurable impact, TORSH continues to lead with a platform that empowers growth at every level. With this award, TORSH not only celebrates a milestone—it reinforces its mission to help educators thrive, students succeed, and organizations build sustainable coaching cultures that drive long-term improvement in teaching and learning.
