Raising over $40,000 for Camp Keystone at the National Croquet Center shows what's possible when we unite for a shared purpose. These funds will give kids a summer of growth and joy!”

Major James Hall

The fundraiser, expertly led by event chairs Tally and Grace Walker alongside Warren and Hillary Van Heyst, showcased the power of community in action. “Bringing together such a fun crowd for croquet and a great cause was truly special,” said Grace Walker. “The Salvation Army's work for Camp Keystone is life-changing, and we're thrilled to support it.”

Camp Keystone offers a safe, nurturing escape where children from low-income families build confidence, forge lifelong friendships, and develop skills to last a lifetime. Through exciting outdoor adventures like canoeing, swimming, and archery, plus leadership training for teens and specialized programs for at-risk youth, they discover a fresh perspective on life and unlock their potential. Each year over 150 kids from Palm Beach County participate in the camp where they can step beyond their neighborhoods, meet new friends and explore the great outdoors.
