

Go West Awarded Best Original Score at Vegas Movie Awards

Gabriel Boyer's film joins the circle of international award winners thanks to its acclaimed original soundtrack.

BALMA, OCCITANIE, FRANCE, June 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Go West has achieved an impressive feat, winning the Best Original Score award at the renowned Vegas Movie Awards™.

Receiving this award in Las Vegas is an honor. The music of Go West reflects all the emotion of the journey and the passion of our team.”

Gabriel BOYER

The feature film Go West was recognized for its outstanding and evocative original score, which plays a central role in carrying the film's unique atmosphere.

With its inspiring storyline and strong visual identity, Go West is a visually-driven road movie that follows a young man and his enigmatic mentor on an epic journey towards Hollywood—a modern tale about chasing dreams, friendship, and resilience. The film captivated audiences and received well-deserved recognition at the Vegas Movie

Awards™, a highly sought-after festival renowned for honoring the world's finest films and filmmakers.

Go West was directed by Gabriel Boyer. This award-winning production now joins a prestigious group of past Vegas Movie Awards™ winners, including accomplished filmmakers from over 80 countries, Academy Award® winners, Emmy® winners, Golden Globe® winners, and BAFTA® winners.

As a member of the Film Festival Alliance, the Vegas Movie Awards™ is committed to providing filmmakers with educational opportunities and support to further their careers and personal growth. As a VMA Alumni, Go West will have access to these valuable resources all year round.

Gabriel Boyer shared this statement after the win:

“It's a true honor to receive this award in Las Vegas. The original score is the soul of Go West, carrying both the emotion and energy of our journey. I am grateful to the festival for highlighting the music, and to the whole team for their passion and dedication.”
