

Harvest Hosts Reaches A Record High Number of Stay Requests

Harvest Hosts Members have booked more stays than ever in May 2025, enjoying RV trips to farms, wineries, breweries, and more.

VAIL, CO, UNITED STATES, June 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Harvest Hosts, a unique membership program offering RVers access to overnight stays at thousands of one-of-a-kind locations, is reporting a major surge in travel activity among its members in 2025.

With RV travel continuing to grow in popularity, Harvest Hosts' stay requests are trending upward. According to internal data, Harvest Hosts experienced an increased amount of stay requests from mid-April through May compared to the same period in the prior year. Not only that, but stay requests reached an all-time high in May with 61,738 total stay requests! Harvest Hosts is projecting a continued increase in stay requests throughout 2025's peak travel season.

RVers are hitting the road more than ever and embracing exciting RV travel experiences. Harvest Hosts Members are enjoying their stays at 9,000 host locations, which include working farms, family-owned wineries, craft breweries, museums, and other small business locations across North America.

Industry data suggests an increased interest in road travel this year, but that's not the only reason Harvest Hosts is seeing this rate of growth. Recent product updates have made a big difference. This includes the new Campground Partners Program, which allows Members to access discounts and perks at over 1,300 campgrounds directly from their map. Additionally, 60% of Host locations have chosen to offer at least one extra night to Harvest Hosts Members, and 25% of Host locations now offer electric hookups.

"2025 is shaping up to be our biggest year yet," said Joel Holland, CEO of Harvest Hosts. "We're seeing more people than ever embrace the RV lifestyle and take advantage of the incredible experiences our Hosts offer. Throughout the past year, a lot of our Hosts have become more able to meet RVer's travel needs by offering hookups or extra nights, which has made a big impact."

This surge in travel reflects a larger trend in the RV community, where flexibility, accessibility, and experience are key priorities. Harvest Hosts continues to meet that demand by curating exceptional stays that support small businesses and provide RVer's with memorable, one-of-a-kind journeys.
