Northeast Health services opens a new mental health clinic in Boston's South End, offering therapy and medication management services.

BOSTON, MA, UNITED STATES, June 19, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Northeast Health Services is

I'm so proud of the team we are building of dedicated, skilled mental health professionals. We are thrilled to open our doors in Boston South End and bring quality mental health care to the community!”

B. Quinn Hayes, Clinic Director

excited to announce the grand opening of its newest mental health clinic in the South End neighborhood of Boston! Dedicated to delivering accessible, high-quality mental health care, this new facility will serve the South End community and its neighboring areas. The clinic opened last month on May 28th and offers a comprehensive range of services, including individual counseling, group therapy, and medication management, ensuring personalized support for every patient's needs.

The clinic is located at 660 Harrison Avenue, Suites 230 & 207 Boston, MA 02118.

The 2024 Health of Boston Mental Health Report, published by the Boston Public Health Commission, revealed data about the mental health challenges faced by South End residents. Across the combined years of 2017, 2019, and 2021, 15.5% of adults in the South End reported experiencing persistent anxiety for 15 or more days, while 13.7% reported prolonged periods of sadness lasting at least 15 days.

Notably, in 2021, the South End recorded the highest rate of mental health-related emergency department visits, underscoring the pressing need for enhanced mental health support in the community.

Northeast Health Services is stepping up to address these challenges. Committed to providing high-quality, affordable, and accessible mental health care, their mission aims to meet the critical needs of the South End and support the well-being of its residents.
