

Washington Global Public Charter School Holds Successful Annual Spring Benefit

Mayor's Proclamation Celebrates the Work of a Top Middle School in the Nation's Capital

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, June 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Washington Global Public Charter School (WGPCS), a nationally-recognized, award-winning public charter middle school located in Washington, D.C., held its Annual Spring Benefit at the elegant private residence of Her Excellency Hanène Tajouri Bessassi, Ambassador of the Republic of Tunisia to the United States. The event celebrated the school's mission and national achievements, bringing together distinguished guests, supporters, and community leaders.

Co-Founder Liz Torres & Ambassador Hanene Tajouri Bessassi

Kimberly A. Bassett, Secretary of State of Washington, D.C., presented a Mayoral Proclamation on behalf of Mayor Muriel E. Bowser. In her remarks, Secretary Bassett highlighted the school's accomplishments, sharing, "The U.S. Department of Education named Washington Global PCS a 2023 National Blue Ribbon School, and the school was named a 2022 Bold Performance School by EmpowerK12."

“

I would like to acknowledge the commitment of Dr. Elizabeth Torres, her team, and her partners to ensure that education remains accessible and equitable for all, allowing dreams to flourish.”

Ambassador Hanene Tajouri Bessassi

Her Excellency Ambassador Hanène Tajouri Bessassi served as the Honorary Chair of the Spring Benefit. Elizabeth Torres, the school's CEO & Co-Founder, presented Ambassador Tajouri with the Champion of Education Award to recognize her dedication to and advocacy for education equity. Ambassador Tajouri remarked that "Education is not a tool for personal growth... it's a fundamental catalyst for social progress, economic development, and cultural enrichment." The Ambassador also commended the school's leadership, adding, "I would like to acknowledge the incredible commitment of Dr. Elizabeth Torres, her team, and her partners to ensure that education remains accessible and equitable for all, allowing dreams to flourish."

Elizabeth Torres, Ed.D., shared highlights of the school's global education model and announced that the school will be adding an Arabic language program for students to further support its international education mission. The school also showed its commitment to the arts through its collaboration with internationally acclaimed artist, Halim Flowers, who donated a painting entitled, "Mind Full Nest" for the live auction.

Washington Global Public Charter School's Annual Spring Benefit supports Washington Global Public Charter School's internationally focused middle school program, which serves students across the District, particularly in underserved communities, with a rigorous, internationally-based academic, and cultural curriculum.

For more information about Washington Global Public Charter School, please contact Jan Du Plain at Du Plain Global Enterprises at 202.486.7004 or email janduplain@gmail.com.

Photo Credit: Tony Powell

Jan Du Plain
Du Plain Global Enterprises
+1 202-486-7004

email us here

Visit us on social media:

LinkedIn

Instagram

Facebook

X

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/820890087>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2025 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.