The 2025 edition is currently taking place in New York City from Wednesday, June 4 to Sunday, June 15, and promises to be one of the most dynamic yet, with talents such as Robert De Niro, Martin Scorsese, Ben Stiller, Demi Lovato, Bryan Cranston, Octavia Spencer, and Darren Aronofsky expected to participate, along with musical performances by Miley Cyrus and Metallica.

The Tribeca Film Festival is an annual event held in New York City, which was initiated to re-inspire lower Manhattan after the 9/11 World Trade Center attacks. It celebrates several narratives in various forms, such as films, television, music, art, and immersive programming.

Château Malartic-Lagravière Red 2016, along with DiamAndes Grande Réserve Chardonnay 2022—the family's Argentinian domaine—were served at the Filmmakers Welcome Party on June 6, 2025 at the iconic Bowery Hotel, marking the festival's official kickoff and welcoming actors, directors, and producers from across the global film industry.

With this renewed collaboration, the Bonnie family reaffirms their belief in the deep and lasting bond between fine wine and cinematic storytelling. In addition to its long-standing presence at the American Cinematheque Awards since 2019, Château Malartic-Lagravière has also been the wine sponsor of major cultural institutions such as the amfAR Gala in Palm Beach, which it supported for the second time in March 2025. Its wines have also made on-screen appearances in Emily in Paris, Death on the Nile, and Taken II.
