

Giordano Paving Earns National Recognition as a 2025 Top Contractor in Paving, Pavement Repair, and Striping Services

Giordano Paving named 2025 Top Contractor in Paving, Pavement Repair & Striping by Pavement Magazine—honored for quality, sustainability & self-performance.

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, June 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Giordano Paving, a leading self-performing paving contractor based in Houston, Texas, is proud to announce its selection as a 2025 Top Contractor in three major categories—Paving, Pavement Repair, and Striping—by Pavement Maintenance & Reconstruction Magazine. This prestigious honor places Giordano among the most respected paving contractors in the United States.

The company earned a spot on the Top 50 Contractors list for each category, which evaluates thousands of firms across North America based on project volume, professionalism, industry impact, and ability to self-perform services across complex infrastructure scopes. This triple recognition places Giordano Paving among the most trusted and effective paving companies in the country.

The recognition reflects over 25 years of excellence in delivering sustainable, high-performance asphalt and concrete solutions for commercial, industrial, and retail properties.

"We're incredibly honored to be recognized across three of the most competitive categories in the industry," said Jason Giordano, Founder and CEO. "This is a testament to the pride our crews take in every job, from parking lot overlays to full-depth reclamation. We never subcontract core paving services, which means we control quality, timelines, and results from start to finish."

A Self-Performing Contractor Trusted Across Southeast Texas

Giordano Paving specializes in high-performance paving and asphalt solutions, including:

- Commercial paving for parking lots, drive lanes, and logistics centers
- Pavement repair services including removal, replacement, and restoration
- Parking lot striping and signage for ADA compliance and traffic flow
- Full-depth reclamation (FDR) with cement for sustainable resurfacing
- Asphalt milling, overlays, and sealcoating
- Base and soil installation and stabilization

With clients ranging from national retail chains to industrial distribution hubs, Giordano is known for combining technical precision with exceptional client communication and project management.

Unlike many competitors, Giordano self-performs all core services, ensuring full transparency and accountability throughout the process—something that's become a key differentiator for commercial property and facility managers seeking worry-free execution.

A Commitment to Sustainability and Quality

Giordano's environmental approach continues to set it apart: the company recycles over 90% of removed concrete, asphalt, and base materials, minimizing landfill use and supporting sustainable infrastructure. Every job is approached with long-term durability, regulatory
