

Tracy Drost Appointed Mrs. Illinois America 2025, Launches Statewide Mission to Mentor Youth in Philanthropy

Tracy Drost has been appointed Mrs. Illinois America 2025, bringing her passion for teaching children the importance of philanthropy and making an impact.

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, June 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Mrs. America organization has proudly appointed Tracy Drost as Mrs. Illinois America 2025, recognizing her commitment to community service, mentorship, and purposeful leadership. As a devoted mother, advocate, and change-maker, Tracy is launching her statewide platform, focused on mentoring children to become compassionate and philanthropic leaders — a vision deeply rooted in her own family's way of life.

Tracy's mission is clear: empower children to see the power of giving, not just as a way to help others, but as a path to emotional growth, self-worth, and long-lasting impact. Her work centers around teaching kids that kindness is a superpower and that service creates ripple effects that build stronger communities and healthier individuals.

"Philanthropy isn't just about donating money — it's about showing up, using your voice, and giving your time," says Tracy. "When we teach kids to lead with their hearts, we're setting them up to be bold, compassionate adults who lift the world around them."

With a personal history of raising children who have been actively involved in giving back, Tracy is taking her grassroots approach statewide. She will utilize her title to highlight programs, lead
