

TechDemocracy Joins Forces with SailPoint to Deliver Managed Services for Identity Security

TechDemocracy proudly announces the extension of its current partnership with SailPoint, a pioneer and market leader in identity security.

PISCATAWAY, NY, UNITED STATES, June 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TechDemocracy, a trusted cybersecurity solutions provider, proudly announces the extension of its current partnership with SailPoint, a pioneer and market leader in identity security. This strategic endeavor builds upon TechDemocracy's professional services expertise with SailPoint's innovative identity security and governance platform, empowering organizations to strengthen their digital defenses.

In today's increasingly complex cybersecurity landscape, organizations face growing challenges in protecting digital assets and meeting stringent regulatory requirements. As part of this partnership, TechDemocracy will leverage the SailPoint Identity Security Cloud (ISC) alongside its proprietary File Manager Master Suite (FMMS) to deliver a comprehensive, tailored managed security service. By combining ISC and FMMS, TechDemocracy offers a unique solution that unifies the design, deployment, and ongoing management of identities, access rights, and compliance controls—helping customers reduce risk, enhance regulatory alignment, and improve operational efficiency.

"We are excited to extend our current partnership with SailPoint to further enhance our solution services portfolio," said Todd Rossin, CEO & Chief Strategist – TechDemocracy, "Identity security is paramount in today's ever-changing digital environment, and SailPoint's solutions provide the robust framework needed to protect sensitive data and mitigate cyber threats. Together, we will continue to deliver unparalleled value to clients of all sizes and help them achieve their security objectives."

TechDemocracy provides end-to-end managed services for SailPoint's solutions, from initial implementation to ongoing maintenance and support. "Together, TechDemocracy and SailPoint are committed to helping organizations navigate the complexities of identity security, safeguard critical data, and achieve their business objectives securely," said Dave Schwartz, SVP of Global Partners, SailPoint. "This partnership underscores both companies' dedication to delivering innovative solutions that empower organizations to thrive in today's digital world."
