

Happy Birthday, Jason Voorhees — Celebrate with the Ultimate Friday the 13th Fan Experience

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, June 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This Friday the 13th isn't just superstition—it's a celebration. June 13 marks the birthday of horror's most iconic slasher, Jason Voorhees. And what better way to honor his legacy than to plan your trip to the biggest Friday the 13th convention ever: Crystal Lake Nightmares, happening August 8–10, 2025 at the Hilton LAX in Los Angeles.

Produced by horror event powerhouse Tommy Brunswick, Crystal Lake Nightmares is more than a convention—it's a bloody love letter to 45 years of camp carnage, machete mayhem, and cinematic nightmares that started it all. This is not your average horror show. It's an immersive, fan-fueled celebration packed with rare appearances, exclusive experiences, and die-hard fans traveling from around the globe to pay tribute to Camp Crystal Lake.

The Convention Jason Would Kill to Attend

Crystal Lake Nightmares is pulling together one of the most complete and star-studded lineups in franchise history, including actors from nearly every film in the legendary series—some of whom have NEVER appeared at fan conventions before. These are once-in-a-lifetime opportunities to meet the faces behind your favorite Final Girls, counselors, and, of course, the many men behind the mask of Jason.

"Crystal Lake Nightmares is a thank you to the fans who've kept Friday the 13th alive for 45 years," says showrunner Tommy Brunswick. "We're creating a weekend packed with unforgettable photo ops, immersive experiences, and a chance to be part of horror history."

Expect:
