provide soothing music to chemotherapy patients in clinics. Bazel and his team remain devoted to The River of Calm's mission by providing calming music, live streaming concerts, helpful articles about wellness, and the headphones project, which provides headphones filled with the music from The River of Calm and donate them to chemotherapy centers nationwide.

In Bazel's words, “Music transcends language and touches our souls.”

Beyond his philanthropic and entrepreneurial pursuits, Bazel has received numerous accolades for his work as an artist, composer, pianist and producer in 2024-25, particularly for his recent releases The London Sessions: New Perspectives from Studio 2 (LS2) and The Christmas Sessions: Seasons Greetings from Studio 2, both pristinely-recorded at Abbey Road Studios and also available in immersive audio format.

The albums have been recognized by the:

- HiMAs
- InterContinental Music Awards
- the World Entertainment Awards
- the Clouzine International Music Awards
- New Age Notes Radio
- the Global Music Awards
- The Anthem Awards
- The LIT Music Awards

"A Beautiful Life" and "Beautiful Tonight," LS2's sixth and tenth tracks respectively, were spotlighted by these organizations, and, the album is currently nominated for an Album of the Year award by SoloPiano.com. The Christmas Sessions: Seasons Greetings from Studio 2 won Best Album and Best Christmas Album at the 2025 LIT Music Awards. Ed Bazel is also nominated by the Elite Music Awards and the Josie Awards for a "Musician of the Year" honor.
