Players who make successful predictions will receive in-game jewels or items, which may be eligible for conversion to TOKYO GAMES TOKEN under certain conditions.

The first official tournament, held on June 14, awarded the champion a prize worth $3,333. The total prize pool, including rewards for finalists, reached $17,333.

In the match prediction segment, winners received prizes worth up to $13,333, with the total distribution amounting to $40,000. This resulted in a large number of winners and a highly engaging event for participants and spectators alike. (Note 1)
