Parkwood Home Care provides tailored, compassionate in-home care to veterans through the Veterans CARE Program, now celebrating seven years of service.

HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA, CANADA, June 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Parkwood Home Care is proud to continue its long-standing commitment to Canada's veterans through its Veterans CARE Program, now in its seventh year of service. As an approved provider through Veterans Affairs Canada and the Veterans Independence Program (VIP), Parkwood Home Care remains dedicated to ensuring that veterans receive the quality, compassionate care they deserve — in the comfort of their own homes.

The Veterans CARE Program offers a wide range of in-home support tailored to the needs of veterans, including personal care (bathing, dressing, incontinence care), medication and health reminders, ambulation and mobility assistance, posture support, and specialized care for those living with Dementia or Alzheimer's. Additional services such as meal preparation, light housekeeping, and respite care provide added support to veterans and their families. Importantly, Parkwood's approach also emphasizes companionship and emotional well-being, helping reduce isolation and support mental health.

Our veterans have given so much to this country, and they deserve reliable, respectful care”

“Our veterans have given so much to this country, and they deserve reliable, respectful care,” said Lorna MacMillan, Parkwood Home Care President. “We’re honored to continue serving them year after year with our Veterans CARE Program.”

The program is delivered in partnership with the Veterans Independence Program, a government-funded initiative offering annual, tax-free financial assistance to support eligible veterans in maintaining independence at home. Eligibility includes veterans receiving a disability benefit, those who qualify for the War Veterans Allowance or Prisoner of War Compensation, and individuals eligible for Contract or Priority Access Beds in long-term care facilities but unable to access one.
