Kevin Makes Sense Media Named Telly Award Winner For the Fourth Consecutive Year

VIRGINIA BEACH, VA, UNITED STATES, October 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Virginia Beach Virginia video production and branding firm Kevin Makes Sense Media, has been named the recipient of a 2025 Silver TELLY Award. The agency received the award in the Food & Beverage category for the promotional video "Always Serving Up A Great Time". The video was produced for Northern Virginia restaurant D.C. Prime. The award-winning steakhouse is located in Ashburn, Virginia. "We are thrilled with the award", says managing partner Rick Crowe, "but we're most thrilled with the awareness and attention that Kevin's productions have brought us since working together."

Kevin Makes Sense Media named 2025 Telly Award winner

This is the fourth consecutive year that KMSM has been named a TELLY Award recipient. It is also the second TELLY Award for work they have produced for the D.C. Prime. The video "Who We Are" was the other, in 2020.

"2025 has already been an incredible year for all of us here at Kevin Makes Sense Media", said President/CEO Kevin Neff. "Awards are great, but results are better", quips Neff, "and we're fortunate to be able and say that we garner both for our clients."
