About the Mrs. Nevada Organization

The Mrs. Nevada-America Pageant serves as the official preliminary to the Mrs. America and Mrs. World competitions, offering married women the opportunity to challenge themselves, expand their horizons, and give back to their communities. The annual state pageant is led by a dedicated leadership team committed to uplifting women and their communities across Nevada.

About Jackie McKenna, Mrs. Nevada-America State Director

Crowned Mrs. Nevada-America 1990, Jackie McKenna has served as the State Director since 2008, leading with passion, precision, and purpose. As the founder of McKenna Models and Talent, Jackie is a pioneer in developing confidence and character in women of all ages across Nevada. Her legacy includes not only organizing exceptional pageant productions, but also building a sisterhood rooted in service, empowerment, and authenticity.

Through her unwavering dedication, Jackie has elevated the visibility of Nevada's queens on the national stage and created a lasting impact on the lives of the women she mentors.

About the Mrs. America Organization

Founded in 1977, Mrs. America Organization is one of the most prestigious and enduring pageant systems in the world celebrating the accomplishments, beauty, and leadership of married women across the United States. As the official national competition for state titleholders like Mrs. Nevada-America, titleholders from all 50 states and the District of Columbia compete each year for the national crown, with the winner advancing to represent the U.S. at Mrs. World.

With a focus on community service, personal growth, and the celebration of family values, Mrs. America continues to be a leading platform for empowering women.

The national competition is held annually each January in Las Vegas, Nevada, where tradition and purpose converge on a national stage — not only to crown queens, but to honor the multifaceted roles women play as leaders, entrepreneurs, community builders, and nurturers of the next generation.
