infrastructure.

“Visibility is the number one reason customers choose Hangar A over other options,” said Kevin Kerns, President and CEO of Hangar A. “They’re not just investing in speed, they’re gaining clarity, control, and peace of mind at every step of the journey.”

The award also recognizes Hangar A's ability to manage both small parcels and complex freight with the same high-speed, transparent approach. From fashion retailers to parts distributors, customers are using Hangar A's unified network and automation to accelerate delivery times, reduce costs, and scale operations nationwide.

With expansion underway from 40 to 60 U.S. markets, and new capabilities to support international brands injecting goods into the U.S., Hangar A continues to redefine what's possible in express e-logistics.

About Hangar A

Hangar A is a leading e-logistics automation and services provider, revolutionizing the industry by combining leading-edge technology with a comprehensive network of commercial airlines and ground transportation partners. Our tech-forward Express Delivery Network (eDN) enables Hangar A to offer best-in-class first, middle, and last-mile services, ensuring fast, efficient, and secure transport of goods throughout North America. This network is powered by Hangar A's proprietary Express Cargo Management System (eCMS)—a world-class operating platform that utilizes "middle mile" commercial air zone skipping to offer reliable next-day and two-day delivery services.
