

Southern Quip LLC Expands Catalog of Empowering Books for Teens and Gen X Parents

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, June 16, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Southern Quip LLC, a publisher specializing in empowering literature for teens and Generation X parents, continues to build its catalog of insightful publications addressing modern family dynamics and personal development.

The company's recent release, "Hold My Capri Sun: Gen X's Survival Guide to Parenting Parents, Coaching Millennials, and Keeping Your Sanity," addresses the unique challenges faced by Generation X as they navigate multiple caregiving roles. This practical guide offers strategies for maintaining balance while supporting both aging parents and younger generations.

Another notable title in Southern Quip's growing collection is "Empowered Choice" by Jordan Avery, which provides teens with frameworks for confident decision-making in today's complex social landscape.

Southern Quip's publications are available in both ebook and print formats, making them accessible to readers who prefer either digital or traditional reading experiences. The publisher plans to expand its catalog with additional titles focused on teen empowerment and parental guidance.

Readers interested in staying updated on upcoming releases can sign up for Southern Quip's newsletter to receive announcements and exclusive content.
